C40 cities represent a growing slice of the world’s economy.

C40 cities are undertaking 1056 activities to mitigate and adapt to climate change.

C40 cities lead the way in CO₂ emissions measurement and reporting.

C40 cities are facing risks from climate change.

C40 and CDP Cities 2014

With the active participation and leadership of the C40 member cities, CDP Cities is the most comprehensive climate change reporting platform at the city level. This is a snapshot of findings from our fourth annual survey.
61 C40 cities reporting worldwide, covering a population of 285,276,000.

C40 cities are participating in CDP Cities 2014, the largest and most comprehensive survey of cities and climate change.

Cities reporting by membership status:
- Observer cities: 5
- Innovator cities: 18
- Mega cities: 38